

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 22, 1892.

Sun rises to-morrow at 7:13; sun sets 4:47. High water 9:57 a. m. and 10:20 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair till Thursday, colder Wednesday morning, northwesterly winds.

TO-NIGHT'S CELEBRATION.—The democrats of this city will to-night celebrate the great City, State and national victory over republicanism by a torch-light procession and mass meeting. The City Democratic Committee met last night and perfected the arrangements, which have been in progress for a week past.

As heretofore stated, the various ward clubs and other organizations which will take part in the celebration will meet at the City Hotel at 7 o'clock, when the line will be formed. The procession will move promptly at 7:30 o'clock over the route as published elsewhere. Capt. W. H. Smith will be chief marshal and his mounted aides will be Harry Burke, L. Marbury, E. E. Downham and Richard Rowland. Each of the wards will also have their marshals according to the published programme. The procession will be composed of the clubs of the four wards, each member bearing a torch; the Bach-cors Club, 40 strong, wearing white derby hats and democratic badges, and carrying canes; the "City Sports," also wearing white hats and badges; the Sons of Confederate Veterans; mounted democratic clubs from Fairfax and Alexandria counties; two floats—Harrison and his Cabinet, and the Salt River Boat, and a wagon on which will be mounted the Fairfax cannon, "Baby Ruth." The democratic cannon, "John S. Barbour," will also be used for firing salutes at various street intersections.

Hoffman's band, from Washington, and the Third Regiment Drum Corps will also be in line. The display of fireworks will be the most elaborate ever attempted in this city and rockets, Roman candles, &c., will be discharged all along the line. The larger fire-works, however, will be set off at the corner of King and Washington streets. It is understood that many of the houses along the route of the procession will be illuminated and that during the parade will be lit with lights. After the parade a mass meeting will be held at the Opera House which will be addressed by Hon. John Goode and F. E. Meredith.

MARYLAND POINT LIGHT.—Notice is given by the lighthouse board that, on or about December 15, 1892, a light of the fourth order, flashing white every five seconds, will be exhibited from the structure recently erected in about 12 feet of water, about the middle of the shoal lying three-quarters of a mile S. E. by S. from Maryland Point, Potomac river, Maryland, about 50 miles below this city. The lighthouse stands just inside, near the northerly edge, of the southwesterly red sector of Upper Cedar Point light. The light will illuminate the entire horizon. The focal plane is 413 feet above the mean high water, and the light may be seen in clear weather, the observer's eye 15 feet above the same level, 11 miles. The structure consists of an iron screw-pile foundation, a painted brown, surrounded by a white hexagonal frame, dwelling, with green blinds and a brown roof, above which rises a black lantern.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Thos. Sedgwick, in the "U and I" Company, is one of the best Irish comedians in this country. He has a brogue that is thoroughly natural on the stage, and that at no time appears forced. Off the stage he can tell as funny an Irish story as one desires to listen to. For years he used to do an Irish sketch on the vaudeville stage. Sedgwick has written a good many clever Irish songs that are often heard on the stage.

The concert by the Washington Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar Club at the Opera House on Thanksgiving night promises to be a grand affair from the present outlook. The club have with them Hub Smith, who will sing some of his latest songs, Forest D. Carr, the wonderful basso, and "Eddie" Walsh, the well-known dramatic reader.

THE HOWARD CASSARD.—A joint committee meeting, consisting of representatives of the Arrow Steamship Company, Arrow Coastwise and Arrow Atlantic Steamship Companies and the Monumental Construction Company of Baltimore City, was held yesterday in Baltimore, and arrangements were completed for a series of trial trips of the steamer Howard Cassard. A favorable report from Mr. H. Ashton Ramsey was read in respect to the working of the engines, which were operated yesterday. After months of work on the machinery of the steamer the directors think that satisfactory results will be reached. Yesterday steam was up and her main engines were turned over. In a few weeks more it is expected that all connections will be made for a fair test.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—The coroner's jury summoned yesterday to ascertain the cause of the death of Richard A. Coates whose body was found floating in Reed's dock yesterday morning, met again this morning at Mr. Demaine's undertakers' establishment. After hearing the testimony of several witnesses the jury, of which Mr. Frank Wallace was foreman, returned a verdict of accidental drowning. Nothing new was elicited at the inquest concerning the drowning other than was published in yesterday's GAZETTE. The body has been taken in charge by relatives of the deceased and will be interred in Bethel cemetery for the present.

MUSICAL.—The complimentary rehearsal of the Alexandria Musical Association, the first of the season of 1892-93, will take place on Tuesday night next, November 29th, and not on next Friday, as was expected. The tickets which have been delivered can be used on Tuesday. This postponement was caused by a desire of the members, some to participate and others to view the democratic parade in Washington on Friday. The association has been a little behind this season, owing to election matters, but now that the excitement is nearly over, it will no doubt make up for lost time.

A reckless disregard of the laws of health stamps the character of many a man. This temerity crops out on every occasion. You can never make such a man understand that a cough is a premonition of consumption and a standing menace to his life. The stages are the ordinary cough, then the asthmal, hacking cough, then the consumption. Let him heed the friendly warning and learn to cure the affection at its first stage with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

False Economy

Is practiced by people who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

NO THANKSGIVING DINNER TABLE

will be complete without a bottle of Prof. L. WUNDERM'S ELECTROLAX, as by its aid the heaviest and richest dinner will be easily digested, and a feeling of comfort produced, even to the worst dyspeptic. See advertisement.

A LONG WALK.—William Hoover, of Curwensville, Clearfield county, Pa., arrived on the fifth of October with a covered wheelbarrow loaded with prohibition tracts, to travel from that place until he reaches Birmingham, Ala., when he will turn northward, going as far as Denver, and home by way of Chicago, a distance of some 6,240 miles. He arrived in this city to-day, and after a short stop, during which he called at this office, he continued his journey.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN.—Mr. Enoch Grimes, for many years a citizen of this place, died at Oceanquan, on Friday last. Mr. Grimes will be remembered by all of our older citizens. For many years he conducted the tanning business in Alexandria on the site of what is now known as the Reform Club Hall on South Fairfax Street. For a long time he had been engaged in agricultural pursuits.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 11:30 o'clock to-day was caused by the burning of the floor of a house on Gibson street, near St. Asaph, belonging to J. A. Seaton and occupied by a colored woman named Fannie Jones. The fire was extinguished by Henry Arnold and several other neighbors by the time the engines arrived on the scene. The damage was slight.

PROBABLY A CIRCUS.—In addition to the parade to-night there will probably be a circus, as several citizens, excellent walkers, propose appearing in line mounted. It has been suggested that guy ropes be attached to the horses that they may be held down to the earth and thus save the lives of the riders when the explosion of fireworks begins.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cold with one prisoner and three lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton, presiding.—Wheatley vs. Church, et al, report of commissioner of sale confirmed and order for distribution.

Griffith vs. Waters, report of sale filed and confirmed.

Esprey, guardian, vs. Harman, order of reference.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of young Howard Field took place this morning from the residence of his father, Mr. H. C. Field, on Lee street, and was largely attended, among those present being his fellow pupils and the principal of Washington School. The services were conducted by Rev. T. E. Carson and the pall bearers were Masters Wm. Moore, H. C. McAllister, Joe. Barley, K. Kemper, Rev. Bungegelder and F. Shymaker.

The Land and River Improvement Company has awarded the contract for rebuilding the old dyke, at New Alexandria, to the Hydraulic Dredging Company at 134 cents per cubic yard.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere, the Belle Bottsford Concert Company will appear at the Opera House on the 29th instant under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church South.

To-day two handsome cedar trees were shipped from near Mount Vernon to Gen. H. M. Sprague, of Maine. Gen. Sprague recently visited Mount Vernon with Gov. Burleigh, of Maine, and his staff.

The democrats of Leesburg had a grand celebration last night, when the town was brilliantly illuminated. An immense bonfire was lighted on the mountain back of the city, the light from which could be seen for many miles around.

The Methodist Protestant ministers of Baltimore yesterday had an informal talk on church matters. Rev. William Poisl, of this city, explained what he calls "a flower-garden plan of Sunday school instruction, in which each class is named after some flower."

D. H. NARAYAN will keep his photographic studio open Thursday, (Thanksgiving Day), to accommodate all who want pictures for the holidays. See advertisement. 321 King street.

George H. Bunnell, one of the most prominent business men of Prince George's county, Md., died Sunday, aged 51 years.

DIED IN JAIL. Major Duke, a resident of this city for four years. He was killed by all who knew him and was of a kind and gentle disposition. He became involved in a fight in the street recently and received a wound from which he never recovered. He was put in jail, but made his escape therefrom; was recaptured and taken back and confined in a cell, and there he died at 10:30 o'clock on the night of the 21st inst. Some few are discharged, but the greater number are leaving on their own accord, having become dissatisfied, and will seek employment elsewhere.

When she returned she found the child hanging from the carriage with the strap about its neck and strangled to death. Her left leg was broken and she sustained severe injuries on the head and body.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The stock market opened weak for the railway list and strong for the industrials. The changes either way were less than 1 per cent. The market improved 1 to 2 after the opening. The volume of business was quite small. At 11 o'clock the market was steady in one.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.—Virginia consols — do 10-40s —; do 3s 73.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Nov. 22.—There are no changes of any consequence to report in the markets to-day. Milling Wheat is in better demand, in fact active, at current prices, but no one seems to want damaged and inferior Wheats; range 60 to 70. Corn 45a 51 for new and old. Rye 54a60. Oats 37a 40. Dressed Poultry and Hogs sell readily. Butter, Eggs and other produce continue in light receipt. Flour, Millfeed, Hay, Straw and Cotton Seed Meal are steady.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Flour quiet and steady. Wheat dull and steady. Corn lower, steady and dull. Pork quiet and firm at $13.25 to $14.75. Lard firm and quiet at $17.75.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.—Flour steady and unchanged. Wheat weak. Corn dull. Oats firmer and higher. Potatoes inactive. Hay firmer. Provisions unchanged.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 21.—Swine.—Receipts have been quite heavy during the past week, nearly 4,000 head more than last week, and prices are easier, with only a moderate demand reported in all the yards at nearly or quite 20 cents decline in values as compared with last week. Quotations range for hogs at $6a6.15 per 100 lbs. and best Westerns at $6.20 gross, and rough hogs at $5a5.50.

Sheep and Lambs.—There is a better feeling for good stock with a fair market. We quote at 34c per lb gross for sheep, lambs at 4a5c per lb gross.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 21.—Cattle.—market a shade higher for choice, medium grades are steady; native steers $3.25a 5.15, bulls and cows $1.35a3.25 per 100 lbs. Calves—market steady; veals $5a8, grassers $2a2.62a1. Western calves $2.5a3.75 per 100 lbs. Sheep and Lambs—market higher; sheep $5a5.50, lambs $5a6.25 per 100 lbs. Hogs—market steady at $5.10a6.10 per 100 lbs.
